

MARRIED YESTERDAY

Three Couples joined in the Bonds of Holy Wedlock at Home and Church.

MAYOR PETTIT OFFICIATES AT ONE.

Mr. Stanley and Miss Butts, Mr. Stickney and Miss Miller do and Mr. Russell and Miss Gregory the Happy Couples They leave on An Extended Bridal Trip.

Yesterday morning at 7 o'clock, at the home of the bride, on Duke street, Mr. Hugh Wright Stanley and Alice May Butts were joined together, Rev. Dr. A. Cone Smith officiating. The marriage was a private one, only a few of the friends of the contracting parties being present. The bride was dressed in a bright travelling suit, while the groom was in the conventional black. The bride was the spickest of many handsome presents. Soon after the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Stanley left by the Norfolk and Western railroad for the home of the bride's parents in Lynchburg, where they will remain a few days. They will also visit Washington and Baltimore and will then go to Atlanta to attend the exposition. They will on their return to Norfolk reside in No. 37 Duke street. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Butts, and the groom is nephew secretary to Captain N. M. Collier, Superintendent of the Eastern Division of the Norfolk and Western Railroad.

STICKNEY-MILLER

In the presence of a large number of friends, Assistant Engineer Herman Brown of Keyes, L. S. N., was yesterday morning married in his workshop to Miss Louise Miller, 16, of St. Luke's Church, Rev. A. S. Levy officiating. The bride came from the home of her brother, Mr. Aaron Miller, who had been selected by her maid of honor, Miss Elsie White, the groom and his best man, Amos A. H. Roberts, L. S. N., meeting them at the church. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Aaron Miller. She was attired in a pretty travelling costume, and carried a basket of gifts of the bride. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Stickney returned to the Seminary Air Line train and left for the Atlanta exposition. The little girl of a few years back has developed in a charming young lady, whose hands have been gathered fast, but then not more so than deserved.

Her Spanish songs and dances and solo solos were marvels of excellence. Her voice was stronger than when she last appeared in this city, and of good weight, and her costumes were rich and becoming. But her improvement is greater than her retires than in any other line. The music of the opera is tuneful in many parts, and as a spectacular the show ranks among the best. There were numerous features of the performance which The Virginian would like to mention if space would admit, but the line must be drawn somewhere. Mr. B. F. Grinnell, Mr. Charles Postle, Miss Lillian Knott and the Nichols sisters all deserve special mention, and the Virginians pleasure in saying so. The performance in its entirety was capital, and a matinee will be given this afternoon, and another performance at night those who could not attend last evening will have an opportunity of seeing one of the best shows of the season.

RUSSELL-GREGORY.

At the residence of the bride, No. 124 Holt street, Mr. C. Arthur Russell was last night wedded to Miss Mary Norman Gregory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Gregory. The nuptial knot was tied by Mayor Pettit in the presence of a number of the friends of the contracting parties.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Grace Christian Gregory. An elegant supper was served at the conclusion of the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell will reside in Braintree Ward.

The Health Board.

At yesterday's session of the Health Board Dr. Vance severely criticized Street Inspector Cruiser for his non-attendance at the meetings of the Board. The Secretary was instructed to notify the Inspector that he was expected to attend all meeting of the Board.

The report of Sanitary Inspector showed eighty-two nuisances reported in the past two weeks, of which seventy were bad abated. New cases of scarlet fever reported; 4 diphtheria.

The Morgue Committee recommended that a two story brick building be erected on the site of the police station stable on Avon street, the lower part to be used as a stable for the police patrol, and the upper part for a morgue. The committee was continued to furnish plans for said building.

WANTED—Men and Women To Work

At home. Pay $8 to $10 per week for making Crayon Portraits. New patent method. Any one who can read or write can do the work at home, in spare time or evenings. Send for particular work at once. Address A. A. CHIOP, German Artist, Tyrone, Pa.

A GOOD MAN WANTED with money to invest to represent tailoring and manufacturing specialty. Well established. A plenty of work now opportunities for the right man. For particulars address Mr. J. H. Weston, Manager, Virginia Pattern Clothing Company, 5 Princess Anne avenue, Norfolk, Va.

6-687

WANTED—Ten good carpenters to work on store fixtures, none others needed

Address E. TATTERSON, corner Main and Gamby street.

WANTED—DRESS MAKING

Miss Whibley, late of Washington, capricious in name or will go by that name, 22 Queen street, wanted.

WANTED—An able-bodied, accommodating white man with a family, a member of the West Norfolk and Port Norfolk drabwatches. Send written application with best references to President W. N. & P. N. D. Co., 19 Kern Building, Portsmouth, Va.

WANTED—Men and Women To Work

At home. Pay $8 to $10 per week for making Crayon Portraits. New patent method. Any one who can read or write can do the work at home, in spare time or evenings. Send for particular work at once. Address A. A. CHIOP, German Artist, Tyrone, Pa.

6-687

WANTED—Salesmen.

Energetic men to sell goods, samples at home or travel. Good sales, steady, good liberal salary or good commission. Address E. C. Box 103, New York city.

6-687

SPECIAL NOTICES.

DRESSES MAKING AND TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT—Mrs. A. M. Sadler, Fashionable Modiste, is at 107 Clarendon avenue, where she conducts dress making, and gives special attention also to finishing tailor-made suits. 6-687

FREE—Handsome Illustrated "Guide for Speculators and Investors," mailed. Send 25 cents and address COMSTOK, HIGGINS & CO., 200 Broadway, New York City.

6-687

MA. AGELASTO, Electrical Engineer, 31 Prince street.

FOR WEDDINGS—Our "Art Department" are displaying an extensive line of beautiful and artistic Framed Pictures with appropriate subjects for every occasion. M. R. M. ART DEPARTMENT, 128 Main street.

FREE LUNCHEONS carefully prepared.

All Drugs, Perfumes, Medicines, Toilet Articles, Cigars and Tobacco. W. P. PHILLIPS, 216 Main street.

NEW FACES ALL ABOUT CHANGING

THE FACES OF THE FAMOUS AND BEAUTIFUL—John H. Woodburn, 177 Washington, N. Y., Inventor of Woodbury's Facial Soap.

FOR RENT.

Two desirable rooms west of Freemason street, in private residence, terms reasonable, reference charged. Address "H." this office. 6-687

Lobley and Mount Washington Cut Glass at low prices at Chapman & Jackson.

Over 500 people fitted with glasses in our shop. The best and most reliable optician in town. Try will cure your liver, and give a good appetite.

BROWN'S FAIR BITTERS,

CHAPMAN & JACKMAN.

HIS THROAT WAS CUT.

A Station-House Visitor Who Caused a Sensation.

During the 7 o'clock roll-call last night the police station was invaded by a colored man, whose visit created a sensation for some time, and set the machinery of the police department in motion to an extent seldom reached by the city's guardians of the peace.

The man was literally bathed in blood, which was flowing freely from a wound in his throat. As he reached the centre of the station he fell upon the floor completely exhausted. Turnley Grifffin picked him up and carried him to the cell room, where he laid upon a table and officers sent for a doctor. Dr. Israel Brown was the first to arrive, but when he reached the station the man was in a stupor, and unable to talk. The doctor ordered that he be sent to a hospital at once and he was placed on a stretcher and taken to St. Vincent's Hospital, where his wounds were dressed.

While the man's wounds were being dressed at the hospital, detectives and officers were securing the streets, looking for evidence of the supposed deadly assault, but Captain Lund, who went to the hospital with the man, found from him that his name was Josiah Taylor, and that while he was sketching with Charles McElroy at McElroy's hotel, located in Atlantic City, McElroy had accidentally cut him. The wound entered the neck, between the wind pipe and jugular vein. No arrests were made, as the man will recover.

Carrying the Academy Last Night.

COVENANTS AS CHIEFTAINS. EDISON, the King of Green Corridors with the ever popular Cullinan in the title role presented for the first time in this city at the Academy of Music last night, the drama of the Africanized Henry Higgins, director of the theatres, and it is put forth prima facie to say that it scored a great success. The performance was under the direction of Mrs. Dennis Grimball, one of the best and most successful managers in the country, and its excellence was the result of intelligent training the members of the company have received at her hands.

Taylor was, of course, the bright principal star, and then Mrs. Kean had surrounded her with good people and as a whole, the company is one of the best that has been seen for years.

Taylor always excels in what she attempts, was particularly so last evening in the various scenes in which she appeared. The little girl of a few years back has developed in a charming young lady, whose hands have been gathered fast, but then not more so than deserved.

Her Spanish songs and dances and solo solos were marvels of excellence. Her voice was stronger than when she last appeared in this city, and of good weight, and her costumes were rich and becoming. But her improvement is greater than her retires than in any other line.

The music of the opera is tuneful in many parts, and as a spectacular the show ranks among the best.

There were numerous features of the performance which The Virginian would like to mention if space would admit, but the line must be drawn somewhere.

Mr. B. F. Grinnell, Mr. Charles Postle, Miss Lillian Knott and the Nichols sisters all deserve special mention, and the Virginians pleasure in saying so.

The performance in its entirety was capital, and a matinee will be given this afternoon, and another performance at night those who could not attend last evening will have an opportunity of seeing one of the best shows of the season.

RUSSELL-GREGORY.

At the residence of the bride, No. 124 Holt street, Mr. C. Arthur Russell was last night wedded to Miss Mary Norman Gregory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Gregory. The nuptial knot was tied by Mayor Pettit in the presence of a number of the friends of the contracting parties.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Grace Christian Gregory. An elegant supper was served at the conclusion of the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell will reside in Braintree Ward.

BRAMBLETON.

The Brambleton Circle of King's Daughters will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of Miss Jessie Hall, in Levett avenue. A full attendance is desired.

The Helen of Enterprise Society of McKendree will on next Tuesday night give a supper, also matinee and literary entertainment at the residence of Mrs. John Howard, Clay avenue.

These ladies are famous for their excellent suppers. Come and enjoy a delightful evening.

Miss Lillian Whitehurst, of Portsmouth, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. W. H. Gorrie, Marshall avenue.

Don't forget the "Harvesting" entertainment which comes on to-night at Trinity M. E. church.

Rev. Frank B. Upton, of Brooklyn, N. Y., has joined his family on their visit to their parental home, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williamson, East Liverpool, Ohio.

Miss Annie Goodwin and Mrs. Fitch of down town, have removed to Fitch Ward, and made their home at 217 Reservoir avenue.

Mr. Hancock and her son, Mr. F. S. Hancock, of South Reservoir avenue, have gone to Atlantic to spend ten days. They were accompanied by their neighbor, Mrs. W. J. Polkwood, who will spend some time with her daughter residing in that city.

Festival Hall has been engaged for the month of November by the ladette Park Avenue Baptist church, who will conduct a "Food Exhibition" for the benefit of their new church.

Miss Annie Goodwin and Mrs. Fitch of down town, have removed to Fitch Ward, and made their home at 217 Reservoir avenue.

Rev. W. D. Smith preached the funeral of Mrs. Justine Fagan, mother of A. L. Fagan, of Clarendon avenue, took place from the home of the latter yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock.

They were accompanied by Mrs. W. J. Polkwood, their neighbor, who was sent to Plymouth, N. C., for interment.

The funeral of the late Robert A. Walker took place yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from Centenary M. E. church, the services being conducted by Rev. E. H. Rawlings, the pastor, Norfolk Lodge No. 2, Hibernian and the Charronians Union, to which he belonged, followed the remains to Elmwood Cemetery, where the interment took place.

A Colored Cook Plays Detective.

Solomon Bridger, colored, the proprietor of a cookshop at No. 46 Water street, has been trying his hand as a detective. On Tuesday night he walked in the station house with a colored boy who gave his name as Charles Smith, asking that Smith be given lodgings for the night. He was sent back and put in a cell. Yesterday morning Bridger was called at the station and told that King Ring, an escaped murderer from Halland county, Va., for whom there is a reward of $15,000, Smith was held, and his photograph taken for identification.

Persons wishing nice dress-mats and tailoring will see add for the purpose.

ATLANTIC CITY.

Men Captain West, who has been very sick at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. T. Routt, was reported better yesterday.

Rev. H. A. Robinson will leave next week for Charleston, W. Va., to attend the Synod of Virginia, which meets at that city next Tuesday.

A number of the members of Leeks Memorial Church gave their pastor, Rev. J. T. Routt, a decent pounding on Monday night, which was thankfully received.

Revival meetings nightly at the Methodist Church are growing in interest, Rev. Mr. Crawley assisting the pastor.

AT THE SUFFOLK FAIR

Yesterday The Best Second Day in The History of The Association.

THE BICYCLE PARADE A FEATURE.

The Racing Events Have Never Been Surpassed—The Nuptials of Miss Colton and Mr. Tompkins Celebrated—A Brute in the Tolls of the Law.

"The best second day in the history of the association," was what the secretary said last night, when asked for a comparison of yesterday's attendance with that of previous years. And the verdict of the public corroborated his statement. Not only did the maker of wind and rain favor the occasion by perfect temperature and climate conditions, but every factor conducive to the success of a first-class fair was present and worked with unusual energy towards the accomplishment of the great end—the classification and advancement of spectators.

When the grand parade entered the grounds at an early hour, and the crowds of audience and the contestants themselves were gathered around the gate, general excitement was the result.

The best second day in the history of the association," was what the secretary said last night, when asked for a comparison of yesterday's attendance with that of previous years. And the verdict of the public corroborated his statement.

When the grand parade entered the grounds at an early hour, and the crowds of audience and the contestants themselves were gathered around the gate, general excitement was the result.

The best second day in the history of the association," was what the secretary said last night, when asked for a comparison of yesterday's attendance with that of previous years. And the verdict of the public corroborated his statement.

The best second day in the history of the association," was what the secretary said last night, when asked for a comparison of yesterday's attendance with that of previous years. And the verdict of the public corroborated his statement.

The best second day in the history of the association," was what the secretary said last night, when asked for a comparison of yesterday's attendance with that of previous years. And the verdict of the public corroborated his statement.

The best second day in the history of the association," was what the secretary said last night, when asked for a comparison of yesterday's attendance with that of previous years. And the verdict of the public corroborated his statement.

The best second day in the history of the association," was what the secretary said last night, when asked for a comparison of yesterday's attendance with that of previous years. And the verdict of the public corroborated his statement.

The best second day in the history of the association," was what the secretary said last night, when asked for a comparison of yesterday's attendance with that of previous years. And the verdict of the public corroborated his statement.

The best second day in the history of the association," was what the secretary said last night, when asked for a comparison of yesterday's attendance with that of previous years. And the verdict of the public corroborated his statement.

The best second day in the history of the association," was what the secretary said last night, when asked for a comparison of yesterday's attendance with that of previous years. And the verdict of the public corroborated his statement.

The best second day in the history of the association," was what the secretary said last night, when asked for a comparison of yesterday's attendance with that of previous years. And the verdict of the public corroborated his statement.

The best second day in the history of the association," was what the secretary said last night, when asked for a comparison of yesterday